

Dining in Luang Prabang

The eclectic range of menus in this small town fuse traditional European fare (including hot crusty baguettes, hearty stews and succulent steaks) with the spicy and exotic dishes of the Orient.

JOMA BAKERY

Great selection of shakes, juices, sandwiches, pies, salads, cakes and ice creams all with a beautiful location overlooking the Nam Khan River. Both, outside and indoor A/C seating available.

Kingkitsarath Rd

Along the Nam Khan river

+856 71 252 292

www.joma.biz

CAFE BAN VAT SENE

Extensive menu of western and local fare including salads, pasta, pizza, quiche and paninis. For something different try one of the Lao taster menus offering a mix of regional ethnic dishes.

Sakkaline Road

(main street)

+856 71 252 482 www.elephant-restau.com/cafebanvatsene/

KHAIPHAEN

A training restaurant and school which provides training and work experience for disadvantaged young people. Enjoy creative Lao cuisine as well as great shakes and cocktails.

100 Sisavang Vatana Road

Ban Wat Nong

+856 30 515 5221

<http://tree-alliance.org>

COCONUT GARDEN

A good range of western food including soups, salads, pasta, pizza, baguettes and grills. The extensive list of Lao options includes a selection of set menus.

Sisavangvong

Road

+856 71 252 482 www.elephant-restau.com/coconutgarden

LA ROSA

Authentic Italian restaurant. With a select menu created by head chef Andrea Buson, genuine wood oven pizza, homemade pastas & gnocchi are served within a setting of understated elegance.

Khounxoua Road

Ban Wat Nong

+856 71 253 937

LE TANGOR

A stylish French restaurant with an inventive selection of salads, fish and meat dishes. Cheese lovers are encouraged to try the baked Camembert!

Sisavangvong Road

(main street)

+ 856 71 260 761

www.letangor.com

Joma Bakery

Dining in Luang Prabang

Other than the distinct architectural feel the town has due to the French-connection, the food choices truly serve to demonstrate the positive influences of colonisation.

NAZIM

For something a little different try Nazim for Indian food. A good range of authentic vegetarian and non-vegetarian curries are on offer along with biryanis and nan breads.

78/4 Ban Visoun
Visounnarath Rd

+856 71 252 263

www.nazim.laopdr.com

TAMARIND

Considered the place to go for authentic Lao food. Only local food is served here and there is a special Pun Pa (Lao feast) every Friday evening.

Kingkitsarath Road
(Nam Khan riverside)

+856 71 213 128

www.tamarindlaos.com

L'ÉLEPHANT

A well established favourite this French restaurant offers a colonial atmosphere and great range of local and European dishes. The steaks come highly recommended.

Kounxoua
(near Villa Santi)

+856 71 252 482

www.elephant-restau.com

LUANG PRABANG FOOD

The best of the many local style restaurants on the banks of the Mekong. Serving a selection of Lao dishes, fried rice, noodles and omlettes.

Khem Kong (Mekong riverside)

THE APSARA

Serving Lao, Thai and western fusion food in an elegant dining room with a riverside location overlooking the Nam Khan River.

Kingkitsarath Road
(Nam Khan riverside)

+856 71 254 670

www.theapsara.com

BLUE LAGOON

This beautiful restaurant offers a great menu of Lao and Swiss classics, complemented by a selection of old and new world wines. AC dining room and lovely garden seating options.

Siphay Road
(near the Palace Museum) + 856 20 59 252 525

www.blue-lagoon-cafe.com

3 NAGAS

Great for a special treat, 3 Nagas offers a fusion of Asian and Western fare with a Laotian twist. Seating is available inside or in the attractive garden.

Sakkaline Road
(main street)

+856 71 253 888

Cafe Ban Vat Sene