

Hoi An is a bit unusual in that many places do not have street addresses & website. Where possible we have added a link to the restaurant's website which may help you to locate the venue.

The Restaurant at The Nam Hai Hoi An

DRINKS

Plenty of restaurants and bars sell "fresh beer" or "Bia Hoi" by the glass. This cool refreshing lager / beer is often made on the premises that day! Light refreshing low alcohol and very very cheap! Central Hoi An has a blossoming café / bar scene for evening drinking in the heart of the old town.

MORNING GLORY RESTAURANT

A wide selection of Vietnamese delicacies. Takes its name from the morning glory vegetable which, after rice, is the most commonly eaten food in Vietnam. Great location and consistently well received. Morning Glory has become the 'not-to-be-missed' dining experience for most visitors to Hoi An.
