

Shopping in Hanoi

DO MANH CUONG BOUTIQUE

Generally considered the finest and most successful fashion designer in Vietnam, Do Manh Cuong is famous in fashion hotspots around the world, having previously worked for Christian Dior and Dominique Sirop in Paris. His ladies fashion range is always sophisticated, incorporating whimsical details to make dresses with unmistakably unique touches.

88 Nguyen Huu Han, Hoan Kiem District, Hanoi

HANOI WEEKEND NIGHT MARKET

The Weekend Night Market in Hanoi is a busy, bustling gathering of stalls and vendors that brings crowds in droves. Taking place every Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 19:00, the market runs through the Old Quarter, starting from Hang Dao Street and running north to the edge of Dong Xuan Market

Hang Dao Street, Old Quarter, Hanoi

THANH BINH GALLERY

Thanh Binh Gallery is a contemporary fine art gallery in the French Quarter of Hanoi. Some of Vietnam's most respected modern artists have pieces hanging in Thanh Binh Gallery and the range of lacquerware painting is especially good.

25 Trang Tien Street, Hanoi

TAN MY

Tan My Design opened this three-level, 1,000 square meter shop in 2009 and it is a contemporary emporium of gorgeous fabrics and fashion, silk products, lacquerware, art pieces, jewellery, accessories and more. Anyone with a penchant for fashion or art will enjoy a stroll through the large space. It's the biggest and most impressive store of its kind in Vietnam.

61 Hang Gai, Hoan Kiem, Hanoi

TRANG TIEN PLAZA

Trang Tien Plaza is where Hanoi's rich and famous come to shop for luxury items and international designer goods. This shopping mall is spread out over five floors with leading fashion brands such as Cartier, Burberry, Ermenegildo Zegna and Louis Vuitton occupying the ground floor, electronics and home furnishings spread out over the second and third floors and a supermarket on the fourth floor which stocks many international goods.

24 Hai Ba Trung, Hoan Kiem District, Hanoi